New Virtual Golf Facility Joining Anchorage Small Business Community
Swing into Divots Golf to tee it up on September 24th

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, September 13, 2021 - Under its parent company, ai Sports, based out of Walla Walla, Washington, Divots Golf serves as a premier virtual golf facility that takes advantage of cutting-edge technology to capture the speed and direction of each golfer's swing.

Paired with top-of-the-line software that offers players a fully immersive golf experience and more than 90 courses to play from around the world, local owners Victoria and Lawrence Hofmann are eager to bring the sport of virtual golf to Anchorage. "Recognizing that Anchorage has a large and passionate golf community, we are excited to be able to offer a year-round virtual golf experience to avid and beginner players alike. We are looking forward to opening the doors to Divots Golf and joining the community," said Victoria Hofmann.

Guests 21+ will find a casual and inviting atmosphere at Divots Golf, where they can enjoy flat-screen televisions broadcasting major sporting events, snack cart-fare, and soon, beer and wine selections while practicing their short game or teeing off. Whether for training or recreation, practicing drives, chipping, or putting, Divots Golf will offer six golf simulator bays that can accommodate groups of six in the new indoor facility, to meet individual and group needs year-round.

Alaska's long winters now offer the ability to play the competitive sport of virtual golf in a climate-controlled facility without worrying about the weather or time constraints. Between regular play, events, tournaments, and more, there's always something going on at Divots Golf.

Located at the corner of Old Seward and E. Tudor Road, Divots Golf Anchorage will open on Friday, September 24th. To experience the best virtual golf has to offer:

1. Book a tee time conveniently online at divotsindoorgolf.com/anchorage
2. Head to 4230 Old Seward Highway, Anchorage, AK 99503
3. Come in and tee it up!
