Divots Golf in Anchorage is PXG's First Alaska-Based Partner
Elite Virtual Golf Meets Top-Performing Golf Clubs

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, April 20, 2022 - Divots Golf in Anchorage is officially the first Alaska-based partner for Parsons Xtreme Golf (PXG), a global supplier of elite golf equipment and apparel. Less than a year in operation, Divots Golf in Anchorage will pair spectacular clubs with state-of-the-art virtual golf technology to provide the perfect year-round golf experience, beginning Monday, May 2.

Known for being handmade and customized to suit individual players' needs, PXG clubs allow for enhanced distance, forgiveness, and feel. With the company's partnership with Divots Golf, Alaskan golfers of all levels can enjoy the exceptional golf experience PXG offers, locally.

With this partnership, Divots Golf introduces its new Luxury Simulator Bay and Tee Time, which allows guests to demo RH-PXG-GEN4-XP clubs in nearly real-world conditions, year-round.

Provided as part of each Luxury Tee Time are personalized performance statistics and the opportunity to schedule a separate and free telephone fitting with a PXG Master Fitter, backed with their 30-day money back guarantee. The PXG demo program further allows guests to experience the thrill of trying PXG clubs without leaving the state to play or be professionally fitted.
